You have great institutional knowledge on these events and when one comes up like this and the impact on traffic will be greatly affected, the hiring of DOT officers would have been a prudent move on behalf of the Chamber. Several officers spent the event directing traffic instead of dealing with the crowds.

I agree. Leron and I would like to have a meeting with you, the Captain and our security SPEC for future Latino ceremonies. Let me get Leron's schedule and we can set something up. Good morning Ana,

Last weeks star ceremony on March 10th was almost a disaster. As you mentioned, the crowd was large but what gave us problems the most was dealing with the traffic. You have great institutional knowledge on these events and when one comes up like this and the impact on traffic will be greatly affected, the hiring of DOT officers would have been a prudent move on behalf of the Chamber. Several officers spent the event directing traffic instead of dealing with the crowds.
